EHLMANN MAKES APPOINTMENT TO ST. CHARLES COUNTY COUNCIL Council will vote to approve Mike Elam for District 3 seat on April 8

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – Mike Elam of Dardenne Prairie has been appointed by St. Charles County Executive Steve Ehlmann to serve District 3 on the St. Charles County Council. The seat was vacated by Nancy Matheny, who stepped down in March.

“Through his membership in several organizations, Mike has already shown that he is a leader in the community,” said Ehlmann. “We need more individuals like him in government at all levels.”

Elam, an award-winning 30+ year broadcast media veteran, is an Account Executive for Charter Media and lends his professional voice talent to a variety of projects. He also served in the U.S. Naval Reserve as a Hospital Corpsman. Elam is active in the community, currently as Rotary District 6060 Assistant Governor and District Public Image Chairman. He also served as Chairman of the Nominating Committee of the Barnes-Jewish St. Peters/PWHC Foundation Board, Chairman of the St. Charles Businessmen’s Prayer Breakfast Committee, and President of the St. Charles Rotary Club. Elam and his wife Jennifer will be married 22 years this weekend and have three children – Jon, 18, a senior at Fort Zumwalt West; Josh, 15, a sophomore at Fort Zumwalt West; and Megan, 10, a 4th grader at Twin Chimneys Elementary.

The St. Charles County Charter allows the County Executive, with the Council’s approval, to appoint a new representative for District 3 to serve out Matheny’s term. The St. Charles County Council will vote to accept Ehlmann’s appointment at its April 8 meeting. Elam’s term will end January 1, 2015, at which time the individual elected in November 2014 to represent District 3 on the County Council will fill the position.
