

Recorder's Office To Be Closed Wednesday Afternoon For Computer Services

June 25, 2012

Contact: Barbara J. Hall, Recorder, 636.949.7511

St. Charles County, Missouri - The office of the Recorder of Deeds will be closed from noon to 5 p.m. Wednesday (June 27) for computer services. Anyone who does business with this office will need to take care of it before 11 a.m. on that date as the office will be unable to process transactions after that time.

This includes Electronic Recording. Do not submit any documents after 11 a.m. on Wednesday. "We will notify your vendors on Thursday as soon as we are able to begin receiving those submissions," said Barbara J. Hall, Recorder of Deeds.

The website at www.sccmo.org will remain up during this time for you to continue performing searches and accessing images of documents available online.

The office will reopen at 8 a.m. Thursday.

The Recorder of Deeds office is at 201 N. Second Street, Suite 338, in St. Charles. Call 636.949.7511 for more information.
