Hike Winter Trails On Jan. 9 And Register To Win One-Night Stay In A Park Cabin

St. Charles County, Missouri – Get out and hike winter trails at Broemmelsiek Park, located at 1795 Highway DD, Defiance, MO 63341, on Saturday, Jan. 9, 2016, at 1 p.m. for a chance to win one of five one-night stays in a camping cabin in a St. Charles County Park! Depending on the weather, wear your hiking boots, cross country skis, or snowshoes, for a stroll through the park! The winter trails event is hosted by the St. Charles County Parks and Recreation Department and sponsored by Renewal by Andersen.

This family-friendly, fun winter trails event is intended to introduce citizens of all ages to outdoor winter activities. Park staff will lead a short hike through the park and finish out the afternoon with some hot chocolate near a warm fire in the fire pit at shelter #7 in the park.

The winners of all five camping giveaways will be announced that day. Participants must be present to win. Pre-registration is encouraged. To register for the winter trails event at Broemmelsiek Park, visit St. Charles County Parks at www.stccparks.org or call 636.949.7535.

The one-night stays are in camping cabins located at Klondike Park near Augusta and sleep eight guests comfortably. The sturdy cabins come equipped with a ceiling fan, light, electrical service, and an indoor table.
