C.R.U.S.H. Billboard Announcement

St. Charles County, Missouri- The Office of Prosecuting Attorney Tim Lohmar is pleased to announce that C.R.U.S.H. (Community Resources United to Stop Heroin) secured a billboard to draw attention to the growing heroin epidemic. It is the goal of the coalition to educate St. Charles County about the dangers of heroin use.

The graphic design artist is Brandon Winkelmann, a senior at Fort Zumwalt North in O'Fallon, Missouri. The coalition, in an effort to continue to engage students, held an art contest with the Fort Zumwalt School District and the submissions were very impressive. The coalition held a vote and determined Brandon the winner.

The billboard is located on Highway I-70 just west of Mid Rivers Mall Drive on South Service Road. Thank you to all members of C.R.U.S.H for their continued support. If you would like to learn more about C.R.U.S.H. or review our members find us at <http://www.sccmo.org/1541/CRUSH>.
