ENJOY TRADITIONAL MUSIC OF TODAY AND THE SONGS OF YESTERYEAR
AT THE HISTORIC DANIEL BOONE HOME AUG. 17

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – From bluegrass and old-time, to folk and blues, if you're a music lover, or just want to learn more about the history of music, then Traditional Music Day is for you! Sit back and enjoy a collection of traditional tunes from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 17, at The Historic Daniel Boone Home, 1868 Highway F in Defiance.

This free one-of-a-kind musical experience gets your toes tapping and hips swaying as musicians from KDHX Folk School and other artists from throughout the area play music from different genres and eras on the fiddle, banjo, guitar and other instruments. You'll hear traditional sounds of today and songs of yesteryear.

During the event, guests are welcome to explore the various historic village buildings while groups of the talented musicians play inside and on the porches. Guided tours of The Historic Daniel Boone Home will also be available throughout the day with paid admission – adults, $8; seniors 60 and over, $6; child age 5–12, $5; active/retired military and children 4 and under are free.

Registration is not required. For more information, call The Historic Daniel Boone Home at 636-798-2005.

About St. Charles County Parks & Recreation

The St. Charles County Parks & Recreation Department was created in 1997 after voters approved a local use tax with the sole purpose of park land acquisition, development, operations and maintenance. The department's mission is to preserve natural and historic features in areas throughout the county for the use of future generations. Today, the department operates 15 parks and consists of 3,643 acres of acquired park land. From historic homesteads to a youth skate park; from camping, hiking, biking, and fishing to weddings and educational classrooms, there's something for everyone in St. Charles County Parks.

For more information and specifics about each park, amenities, trails, and more, visit stccparks.org.
