

There were 11 cases of influenza reported to the St. Charles County Department of Public Health for week 47 and 8 additional case reported for weeks 40-46 of 2019. This brings the season total to 61 cases.

For a comparison to the rest of the state of Missouri, please visit <http://health.mo.gov/living/healthcondiseases/communicable/influenza/reports.php>

Influenza Positive Tests in St. Charles County

2019-2020 Influenza Season

Graph 1: Influenza cases by type and report week in St. Charles County

Graph 4: Year to Year Comparison of Total Number of Influenza Cases by Report Week

Influenza by Report Week for St. Charles County 2015/2016 - 2019/2020

How long can a person spread the flu virus?

Most people may be able to spread the flu 1 day before showing symptoms up to 5 to 7 days after symptoms begin. Research suggests Tamiflu reduces the infectious period by 1 day.

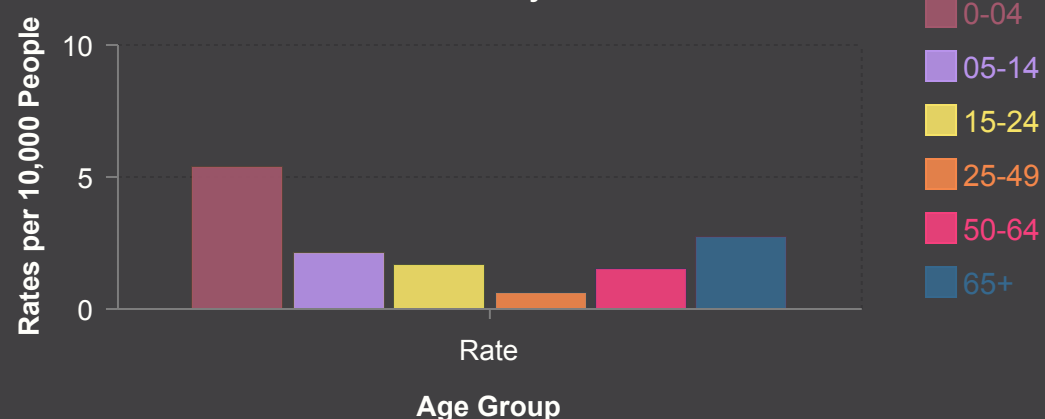

Severely ill persons or young children may be able to spread the flu longer.

Graph 2: Rates of Influenza Cases by Age Group

Influenza Rates per 10,000 People by Age Group

St. Charles County 2019-2020

Graph 3: Number of Influenza Cases by Age Group

Influenza Cases by Age Group & Type

St. Charles County 2019-2020

Missouri is currently experiencing sporadic activity as of week 46.

www.cdc.gov/flu

Questions?

Please call

The St. Charles County Department of Public Health
Communicable Disease Program at 636-949-7319