

There were 6 cases of influenza reported to the St. Charles County Department of Public Health for week 48 and 0 additional case reported for weeks 40-47 of 2019. This brings the season total to 67 cases.

For a comparison to the rest of the state of Missouri, please visit <http://health.mo.gov/living/healthcondiseases/communicable/influenza/reports.php>

Influenza Positive Tests in St. Charles County

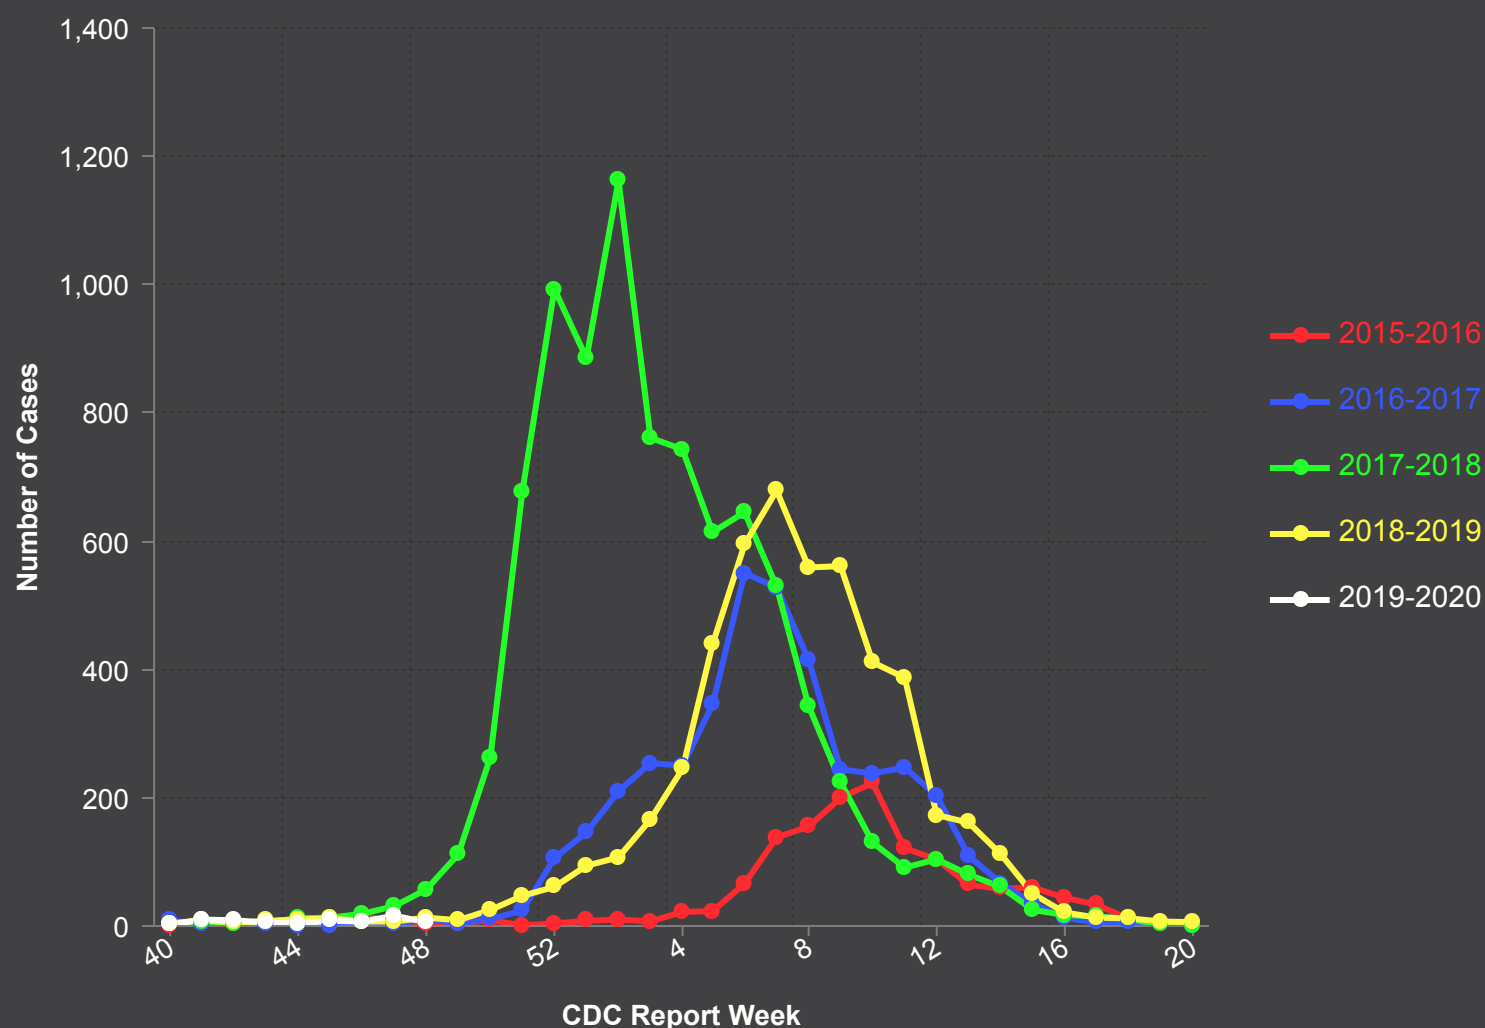

2019-2020 Influenza Season

Graph 1: Influenza cases by type and report week in St. Charles County

Graph 4: Year to Year Comparison of Total Number of Influenza Cases by Report Week

Influenza by Report Week for St. Charles County 2015/2016 - 2019/2020

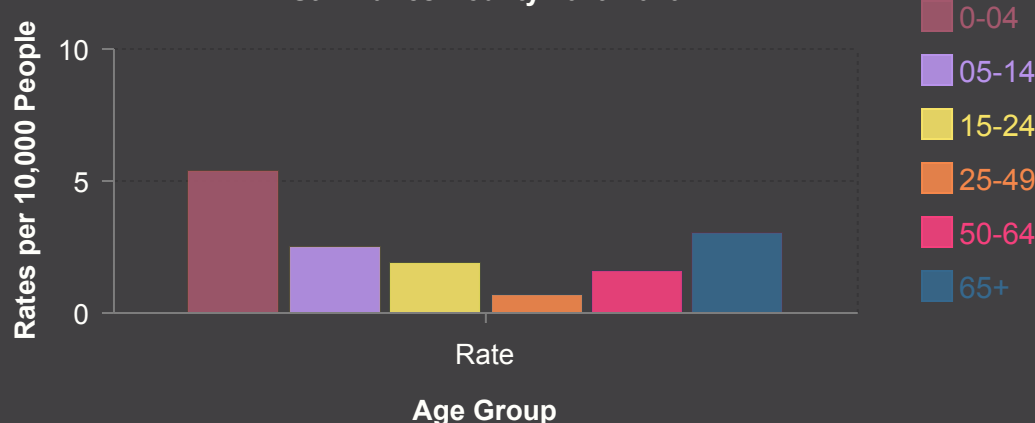

How long can a person spread the flu virus?

Most people may be able to spread the flu 1 day before showing symptoms up to 5 to 7 days after symptoms begin. Research suggests Tamiflu reduces the infectious period by 1 day.

Graph 2: Rates of Influenza Cases by Age Group

Influenza Rates per 10,000 People by Age Group

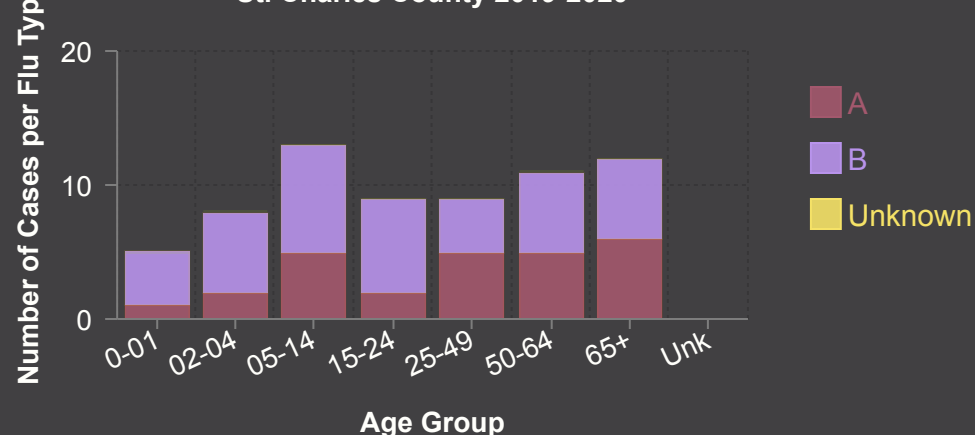

St. Charles County 2019-2020

Graph 3: Number of Influenza Cases by Age Group

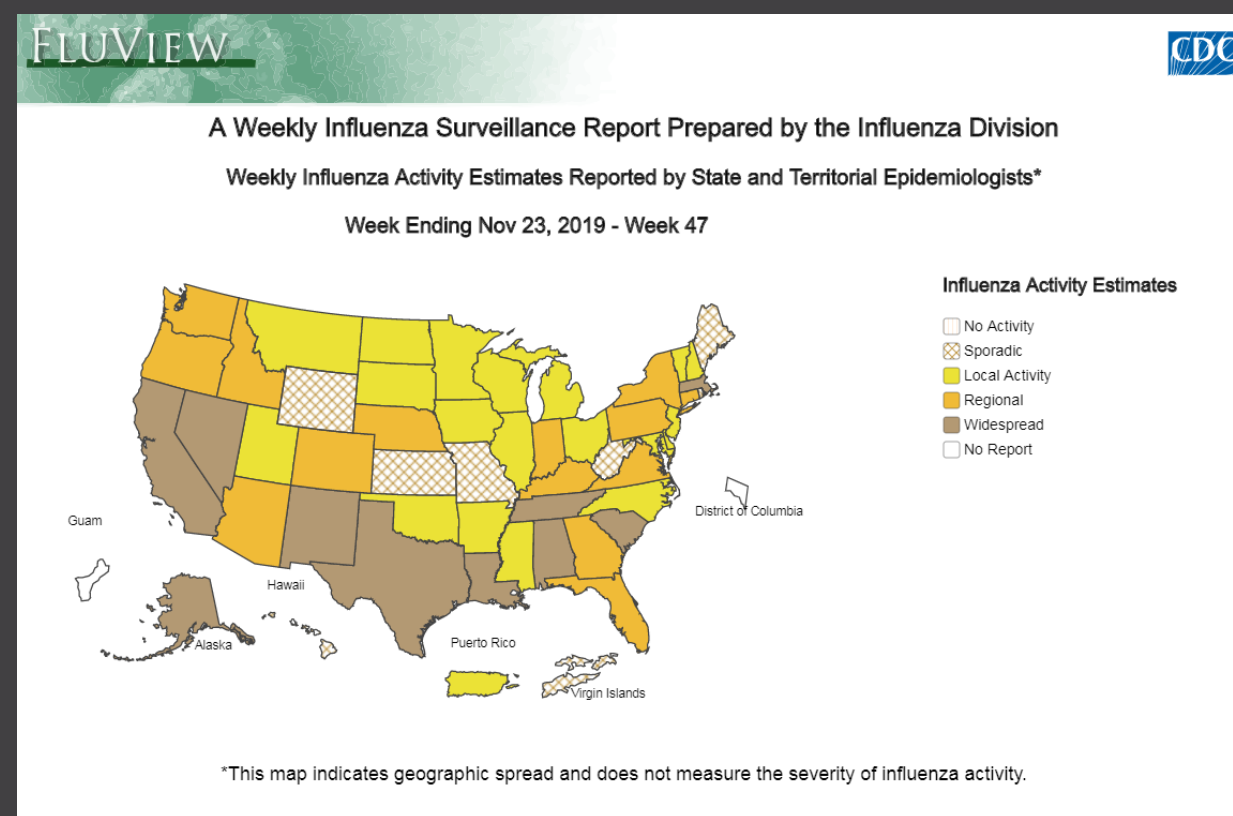

Influenza Cases by Age Group & Type

St. Charles County 2019-2020

Missouri is currently experiencing sporadic activity as of week 47.

www.cdc.gov/flu

Severely ill persons or young children may be able to spread the flu longer.

Questions?

Please call

The St. Charles County Department of Public Health
Communicable Disease Program at 636-949-7319