Additional Charges filed against Baker

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MISSOURI- The Office of Prosecuting Attorney Tim Lohmar announces that on June 11, 2020, Matthew C. Baker, 50, of O'Fallon, has been additionally charged with Tampering with a Witness in a Felony Prosecution.

Between 1/1/20 & 2/6/20 while Baker was incarcerated within the St Charles County Department of Corrections, Baker told his cellmate, J.W., he had asked another inmate, D.H., to kill two children, ages 9 and 10, who were victims of pending child molestation cases against him for the purpose of preventing them from testifying against him in court.

Baker is currently incarcerated for the following numerous crimes against numerous children, including the two children victims cited above: Child Molestation 1st Degree (X2), Child Molestation 2nd Degree (X2), Statutory Sodomy (X4), and Sexual Misconduct involving a Child Under 15 (1811-CR03849-01).
