ST. CHARLES COUNTY ELECTION AUTHORITY REMINDS VOTERS ABOUT POLLING LOCATION CHANGES

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – If you didn't vote in the Aug. 2 Primary Election, Director of Elections Kurt Bahr suggests that you check online to verify your polling place before the Nov. 8 General Election. With the release of the 2022 legislative redistricting map, many voters across the county were assigned new polling locations prior to the August election.

"The redistricting affected approximately 45 percent of households, or about 130,000 St. Charles County voters, who were assigned new polling locations," Bahr says. "Those who voted in the August election will return to that location to vote on Nov. 8."

Voters can verify their polling location by visiting sccmo.org/PollingPlaceSearch. For more information about the Nov. 8 election, including absentee voting, photo ID requirements, and sample ballots, visit sccmo.org/ElectionAuthority.
