

ST. CHARLES
COUNTY

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Spring STORMWATER seminar

Soils and Vegetation on Construction and Post Construction Sites for the Protection of Stormwater

AGENDA:

8-8:25 a.m.

Registration and Vendor Mingle

8:25-8:30 a.m.

Welcome and Introductions

8:30-9 a.m.

Trees in the Urban Environment

Amanda Templer, Master Naturalist

9-9:45 a.m.

ProGanics BSM: Building Healthy Soils

Rachel Higgins, CPESC, CESSWI, Profile Products

9:45-10:15 a.m.

Building Ecology: A Focus on Utilizing Native Plants in Establishing Best Practices on Site

Pat Mahon, Landscape Designer, Hydrodynamics Corp.

10:15-10:45 a.m.

Break and Vendor Mingle

10:45-11:30 a.m.

Stormwater and Sedimentation: Controlling Soil Erosion on Construction Sites

Amanda Templer, Master Gardener

11:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

Panel of Local Experts for General Discussion

12 p.m.

Closing Comments and Questions

8 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Thursday, May 11, 2023

St. Charles County Administration Building, Rooms 115/116
201 N. Second St., St. Charles, MO 63301

This annual education seminar features presentations on best practices from local experts in water quality management. It is approved by EnviroCert International for three Professional Development Hours (PDHs). Certificates are available by email by request.

Please register online by May 4 at sccmo.org/StormwaterSeminar2023.

For additional information, contact
Paul Mueller at pmueller@sccmo.org or call 636-949-7900, ext. 7147.